Radio Stations KNIM-AM/FM had 3 full time job opening to date during the past year. The positions of Mid-Day Announcer, Evening Announcer, and Office Manager were filled.

Applications for both announcer positions were solicited from The University of Nebraska, Iowa Western, The Broadcast Center in St. Louis, and Brown Institute in Minneapolis, MN. One candidate was hired from The Broadcast Center, the other was a former employee who was re-hired.

Applications for Office Manager were solicited over a two week period with radio advertising and through the Missouri Career Center. Of the 45 applicants, 8 were interviewed. The one hired responded to the radio campaign.

Both high school and middle school students were allowed to job-shadow in March, April, and May from several area schools. Career Fairs were also attended by Corporation President, Joyce Cronin at Northwest Missouri State University and at The Maryville Community Center.

Our EEO program of the stations relies on several means to help insure a fresh list of applications for potential employee reserves during times when there are no vacancies, including:

1. Periodic reminders to area educational institutions, employment agencies, civic organizations, and Chambers of Commerce.
2. Consultation with present employees for referral.
